SILVER LAKE/ HART

Surrounded by acres of wildlife and impressive sand dunes, the towns of Silver Lake and Hart are must-see Michigan favorites. Enjoy easy access to Lake Michigan from Silver Lake State Park, then go on to explore a fully off-road dune park and miles of hiking trails. The area’s uniquely beautiful landscape combined with the small-town charm of Hart make it the preferred beach vacation destination for many Michigan residents and visitors from across the nation.

MUSKEGON

Muskegon’s waterfront playground with things to see and do for every member of the family. Choose from relaxing on the beach and playing in the sand, riding roller coasters, and exploring marine life aboard a real WPYC submarine. As you circle Lake Muskegon, stop to check out a brewery downtown or get your art fix at the Museum of Art.

GRAND HAVEN

With recorded history dating back 300 years, the Grand Haven area’s six communities form one of the most historically significant spots in the State of Michigan. Add to a musical fountain and one of the most photographed lighthouses in the Midwest, and you have a destination perfect for history buffs and beachcombers alike. Meander through Grand Haven, Saving Lake, Ferrynburg, West Olive, Allendale, and Coopersville to get the full experience.

HOLLAND

Arguably the best place to spend your time in Holland during the warmer months is along our sandy shores. Camp out at Holland State Park, enjoy the sun setting over Lake Michigan, or walk through a sand dune at Tunnel Park. On your way, check out a centuries old windmill or cruise our historic downtown. So, take your time, make some memories, and enjoy some of the finest stretches of lakeshore in Michigan.

SAUGATUCK DOUGLAS

Our shoreline, highlighted by the famous Oval Beach, has been named as one of the best in the world, with accolades from Conde Nast Traveler, MTV, National Geographic, and more. Come discover one of six unique beaches steeped in nature and spectacular views. Saugatuck/Douglas beaches are perfect for family vacations, getaways with friends, or an afternoon in the sun, a special trip, or any plans that bring you to the wind and the waves.
